- Procedura legislativa ordinaria: coinvolge Parlamento e Consiglio, che devono concordare sul testo. È la modalità principale di produzione normativa.
- Procedura di codecisione: il Parlamento e il Consiglio devono approvare congiuntamente le proposte legislative.
- Procedura di consultazione: il Parlamento esprime parere, ma il Consiglio può adottare la normativa anche in assenza di accordo.

La cooperazione tra le istituzioni

Le istituzioni europee collaborano secondo principi di equilibrio e di divisione dei poteri, ma anche di cooperazione. La Commissione propone, il Parlamento e il Consiglio adottano, e la Corte garantisce la conformità al diritto.

Le decisioni e le maggioranze

Le modalità di voto variano a seconda delle istituzioni e delle materie trattate. Per esempio:

- Consiglio: può decidere a maggioranza qualificata o all'unanimità.
- Parlamento: normalmente adotta decisioni a maggioranza semplice.
- Corte di Giustizia: decide secondo il diritto e i principi giuridici applicabili.

La dimensione democratica e la legittimazione delle istituzioni

La rappresentanza democratica

Il sistema istituzionale dell'UE si basa su un modello di governance multilivello, che cerca di coniugare la legittimazione democratica diretta e indiretta. Il Parlamento europeo rappresenta direttamente i cittadini, mentre le altre istituzioni sono nominate o composte da rappresentanti degli Stati.

La trasparenza e il controllo pubblico

Le istituzioni europee sono soggette a principi di trasparenza, che prevedono la pubblicazione di documenti, le sessioni pubbliche e la possibilità di partecipazione dei cittadini e delle organizzazioni della società civile.

Le sfide della legittimazione democratica

Nonostante i progressi, il sistema istituzionale dell'UE affronta critiche relative alla sua complessità e alla percezione di distanza tra cittadini e decisioni europee. La crescente integrazione ha reso più difficile mantenere un sistema di controllo e legittimazione che sia percepito come rappresentativo e trasparente.

Conclusioni e prospettive future

Il diritto dell'UE parte istituzionale si configura come un sistema dinamico, in continua evoluzione, che mira a garantire una governance efficace e legittima in un contesto di crescente integrazione e complessità politica. Le sue regole e le sue istituzioni devono rispondere alle sfide di un mondo globalizzato, di nuove crisi e di esigenze di maggiore partecipazione democratica.

Le riforme recenti e le discussioni in corso sul rafforzamento delle competenze del Parlamento, sulla trasparenza delle procedure decisionali e sulla rappresentanza dei cittadini indicano un percorso di sviluppo volto a rendere il sistema più partecipativo, responsabile e legittimato. Tuttavia, il mantenimento di un equilibrio tra sovranità nazionale e integrazione europea rimane il nodo centrale da affrontare per garantire un futuro stabile e democratico all'Unione Europea.
